

Sec. 26-507. Parking oversized and recreational vehicles in residential areas.

(d) Parking recreational vehicles on public property in residential zones. A person commits an offense if the person parks or stands or allows the parking or standing of a recreational vehicle on public property within a residential zone.